

First State Trust Company Expands its Growing Footprint with a new Florida Trust Administration Office

First State Trust Company, a privately held, Delaware-chartered trust company, with headquarters in Wilmington, Delaware, is pleased to announce the opening of an additional trust servicing office in West Palm Beach, Florida.

"We could not be more pleased with the addition of a Florida location for First State and are excited to serve our clients and financial advisors in that region," said Jim Okamura, President of First State Trust Company. "Our new Florida location will be open for business on January 2, 2019 and ready to service our clients and advisors."

First State will staff its new Florida office with an experienced Trust Officer team who will be available to meet with clients, interpret trust documents and Wills and be an overall resource for those with estate planning concerns and needs.

"Our presence in West Palm Beach allows us to continue our focus of providing fiduciary expertise combined with personalized service and further enhances our position as a leading provider of advisor-friendly trust services in the Florida market and nationally," added Jacqueline Jenkins, Chief Fiduciary Officer and Managing Director of First State Trust Company.

About First State Trust Company

Organized as a Delaware state-chartered trust company with over $12 billion in assets under administration, First State Trust Company has been serving personal and institutional trust clients since 1982.
